The Democrats in the Tenth Ken-tucky district are making a winning fight and claiming the district for Bryan and Fitzpatrick by a safe ma-jority. The Courier-Journal's special correspondent, Graham Vreeland, gives it to McKinlev by 780 votes, and to do that gives him 600 Boltocrats out of an estimated total of 1200 out of an estimated total of 1200.

The people of Covington are so in-dignant at the brazen effrontery of Carliele in coming into his home town to speak for his Wall street bosses, that there are open threats that he will be egged. The Demo-cratic leaders are doing all they can to keep him from being treated with any sort of indignity. He is without influence and can do no harm.
